CORPORATE news

Tata looking to raise $1 billion for their EV business

Tata Group is looking to raise $1 billion for its EV business vertical. This simply means that Tata is valuing its EV business at $7 billion at the moment. Tesla, on the other hand, has been asked by authorities in India to share its localisation and India based manufacturing plans. Elon Musk recently tweeted about the 'high' import duties associated with importing electric vehicles in the country.

CESL to procure 300,000 E3Ws by 2023 and raise $1.5 billion

The chief of Convergence Energy Services Ltd (CESL) Mahua Acharya has revealed that the company is looking to procure and sell at least 300,000 electric three wheelers (E3Vs) by 2023. He said that the company will also need to raise funds worth $1.5 billion in the upcoming years in order to achieve its electric mobility aspirations. CESL recently floated a tender for 100,000 E3Ws. Acharya added that this was only the first of three similar sized tenders that they are planning to float by 2023.

Bharti backed OneWeb secures $300 million investment from Hanwha Systems

South Korean technology and manufacturing company Hanwha Systems has announced a $300 million equity investment in Bharti backed OneWeb. This investment brings OneWeb's total equity investment since November 2020 to $2.7 billion with no debt issuance. The investment is expected to be completed in the first half of 2022, subject to regulatory approvals.

Rakesh Jhunjhunwala to pick stake in Syska LED

Rakesh Jhunjhunwala, known as one of the big bulls of share market in India, is said to be picking a strategic stake in the homegrown lighting company Syska LED. The news has broken at a time when the rumours of Crompton Greaves acquiring Syska LED are doing rounds of several media houses. The former with this acquisition might be looking to beef up its portfolio in the lighting vertical.

Amara Raja planning $1 billion capex for energy storage business

Battery manufacturer Amara Raja Batteries is looking to grow its battery business further with a key focus on energy storage systems as it plans to infuse about $1 billion in the next five to seven years towards capex to be spent for both organic and inorganic growth. S. Vijayanand, President, New Energy wing of Amara Raja said the company has been making 4,000 to 5,000 million rupees worth of investment on capex and sustaining the existing businesses traditionally every year.

Tata to acquire stake in Tejas Networks

Tejas Networks had recently announced that it has executed definitive agreements with Panatone Finvest Limited (Panatone), a subsidiary of Tata Sons Private Limited. The agreements entail preferential allotment of 19.4 million equity shares at a price of 258 rupees per share aggregating to 5 billion rupees. Panatone and other certain companies of the Tata group would make a public announcement to acquire up to 40.3 million equity shares of Tejas Networks representing 26% of the emerging voting capital in accordance with SEBI takeover regulations.

Reliance invests in electronics manufacturing company Neolync

Reliance Strategic Business Ventures Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mukesh Ambani's Reliance Industries Ltd, has invested 200 million rupees in equity shares of Neolync Solutions. The latter is into India based manufacturing of electronic products including but not limited to mobile phones, telecom products, and computing devices. Neolync has a 49% Israeli stake.

Bharat Forge eyeing to enter E2W and E3W space by 2022

Pune based automotive component manufacturer and forging firm Bharat Forge is reportedly eyeing to enter the burgeoning electric vehicle space with two-wheelers and three-wheelers by the fiscal of 2022, a top company official informed while adding that the launch is scheduled for the second half of the year. The company has lowered its capital expenditure guidance to 2-2.5 billion rupees for FY22, down from 3 billion rupees announced in June for the India business.

Kurtz Ersa to set up 100% subsidiary in India

Ersa GmbH, part of the Kurtz Ersa 220 million Euro conglomerate, having fourteen companies with seven production facilities and nine subsidiaries, announced that it is setting up its tenth international subsidiary in India. The company expects to enable Indian companies looking to add world-class manufacturing as well as support to global companies looking to reduce their dependence on China, set up production lines in India in a short period of time.

has requested the government to revise rates of tax refund for the electrical equipment industry as these are "abysmally low," according to them. Notably, the rates for different sectors are 0.5%, 2.5%, and 4%. The scheme has replaced Merchandise Export from India Scheme, which ended in December 2020.

Electronics India followed by over 18,000 professionals on Linkedin

Electronics India, a Linkedin showcase page managed by the Electronics For You team, is now followed by more than 18,000 professionals. The showcase page caters to different stakeholders of the electronics and IoT ecosystem by posting electronics business reports and latest happenings in the domain from India and around the world. The page is followed by 29.17% senior professionals from the industry. The CXOs, directors, VPs, and owners comprise more than 20% of the professionals following the page.