JANARDHANA SWAMY

Do not you see? It is not just a robot's problem, I am bald too!

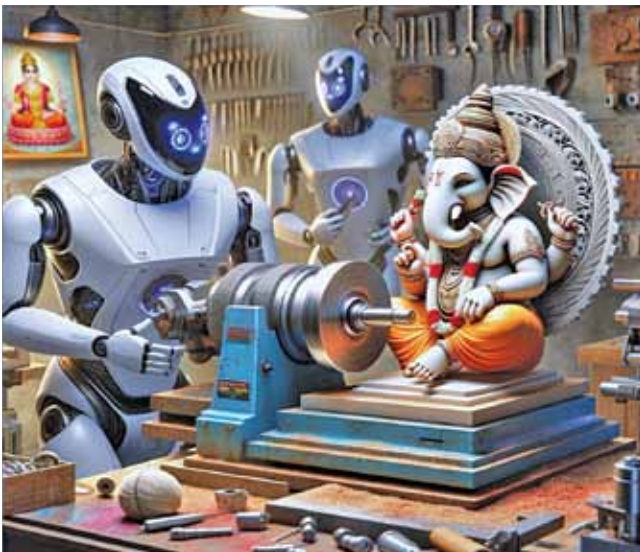

I should not have blindly accepted when they told me it is a job on cutting-edge technology!

Sir, the robot we sent to the Moon is now refusing to come back!

No marks in this Digital Electronics class. Either you PASS or FAIL!

I am confused about the creator. God created man, man created us, and we create God!

I now understand your rusting problem. You just need lots of iron supplements!
