

True, I do not do any work. I just watch TV all the time. Go talk to your son who programmed me!

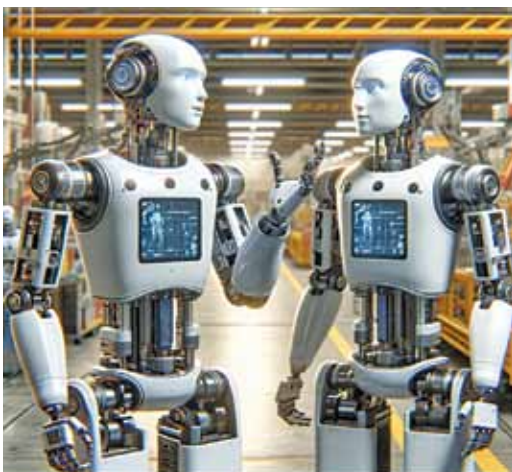

When I grow up, I want to become the Prime Minister!

Yes, it is a self-driving car. I drive it myself!

I am a new python programmer in the town.
How do you do?

Getting married is an easy part. But who will be the husband and who will be the wife?

Congratulation! The company now allows us to Work From Home!
