

Government approves three semiconductor plants; investment pegged at ₹1260 billion

The Indian government has approved setting up of three semiconductor plants in India with a total investment of ₹1260 billion. Micron Technology's plant in Sanand, Gujarat, is expected to deliver its first chip by December 2024. Tata Electronics Pvt Ltd and Powerchip Semiconductor Manufacturing Corp (PSMC) are setting up a fabrication unit in Dholera, Gujarat. CG Power, Renesas Electronics Corporation, and Stars Microelectronics are establishing an OSAT facility in Sanand, Gujarat. All three units will start construction within the next 100 days.

Representational image

Cabinet approves ₹750 billion solar rooftop subsidy scheme

The Indian government launched the PM-Surya Ghar: Mufti Bijli Yojana with a budget of ₹750 billion to support the installation of rooftop solar systems and provide up to 300 units of free electricity monthly to 10 million households. Government will cover 60% of the system cost for 2kW systems and 40% for systems between 2kW and 3kW, with a cap of 3kW. It will create 1.7 million direct jobs in various sectors.

PEOPLE (on the move)

Intel appoints Justin Hotard as Executive VP and GM of Data Centre and AI Group

Intel Corporation has appointed Justin Hotard as the Executive Vice President and General Manager of its Data Centre and AI Group (DCAI), effective February 1. With over 20 years of experience in the computing and data centre businesses, Hotard will oversee Intel's data centre products, including the Intel Xeon processor family, GPUs, and accelerators.

He joins Intel from Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE), where he served as Executive VP and GM of High-Performance Computing, AI, and Labs.

BluSmart appoints Aditi Shukla as President, Corporate Development

BluSmart, an electric vehicle (EV) ride-hailing service and EV charging infrastructure network, has appointed Aditi Shukla as President of Corporate Development. Shukla will lead strategic initiatives, including fundraising, partnerships, and growth opportunities. With experience from Rothschild Investment Banking, Cipla, and Google India, she brings expertise in corporate strategy and business development.

Delvitech appoints Stilianos Pelagidis as Sales Manager, EMEA Region

Delvitech, a provider of AI-driven solutions for automated optical inspection of electronic board assemblies (PCBs), has appointed Stilianos Pelagidis as the lead sales manager for the Europe, Middle East, and Africa (EMEA) region. With over three decades of expertise in the electronics manufacturing industry, Pelagidis has a track record of successful national and international clientele. His appointment is a strategic move towards Delvitech's market expansion in Europe, contributing to the company's transition from startup to industrial player.

Quantum Circuits appoints Ray Smets as CEO

Quantum Circuits, Inc. has appointed Ray Smets as its President and Chief Executive Officer. With over thirty years of experience in high-tech executive business leadership, Ray has a track record of building and leading teams in computing, data centre, and networking technologies. He holds over ten international patents for mobile networking technology. Ray has led large-scale operations and driven growth at companies like Cisco, A10 Networks, Motorola, and AT&T.

