JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

Sir, this torch is so powerful its light can be seen even on moon. I'll switch it on and you can go check it yourself!

You don't need alcohol; I can make a few changes to your software code for an even better effect!

These humans put only the good behaviour program in us when they make us. We have to get all the bad stuff ourselves!

Life has become so mechanical for humans these days, it's hard to tell who the real robots are!

Robots are taking over our jobs. May be it's time we ditch the dog food and switch to rechargeable batteries!

Since when have you been publishing articles in EFY under my name?
