

Vineet Sahni sharing his thoughts college days, now his favourite sport is golf. Introduced to him by a close friend during the Covid-19 lockdowns, Sahni is a regular across various golf courses in Delhi-NCR.

"I started playing from my friend's lawn, and I am a member of the Teri golf course today. This sport, to me, relates best to my professional and personal life," he says.

Very early in golfing, he had a 'hole-in-one!' The average number of years of playing golf for a player before making a hole-in-one is 24 years. Therefore, the lesson: 'When luck meets efforts—resonance happens!'

He explains further, "As golfers, we carry 14 clubs in our bag. I view this as similar to the skills we want to master to live our lives best. For a typical situation in life, we use our skills to overcome the challenge. Which skill and what combination of skills to use for a particular life challenge depends on the individual (very much like in golf), and hence, the results for each individual vary as per the choices made. There is no perfect formula!

"In a game of golf, you pick a club out of the 14 as per the challenge being faced." He adds that it is the experience and the knowledge gained by spending hours that help one decide. "Isn't it the same with the team we pick?" he asks.

"In golf, similar to life, there are good, bad, and lucky shots. Sometimes, you will work the best you can and still not get results. In some cases, you will get results even if the ball hits a tree or lands in a bunker," he adds.

Sahni's management and leadership style are not based on the 'last book he read or the last person he met.' Instead, he believes that no two individuals can be led in the
