JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

Now I know why they call it a 'remote'; it's always far away from me!

You turned off the aircraft's engine? We asked only our passengers to turn off their electronic devices.

Here are plenty of dummy remotes for you, in case you plan to lose some!

He lost four GPS trackers this week. It's better if he keeps those things at home!

I guarantee you will never lose this remote; it's made of solid gold and costs more than the TV itself!

I hope you'll not manage to lose this remote, which is taller than you!
