

THE DASHBOARD

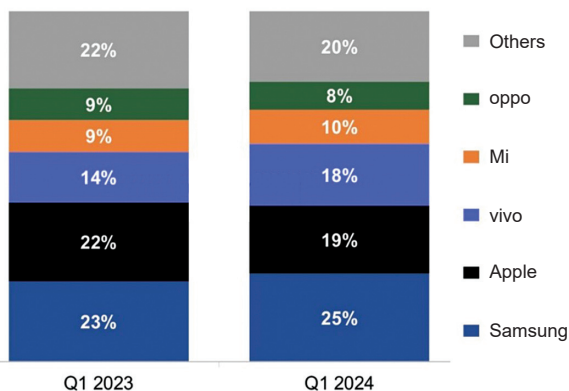

India's Smartphone Market Volume Rises by 8% YoY, Value Grows 18% in 1Q24

India's smartphone market in Q1 2024 saw an 8% year-on-year (YoY) growth in volume and an 18% YoY growth in value. vivo led in volume, while Samsung led in value, capturing over one-fourth of the market share. The premium segment (>₹30,000) accounted for 20% volume share and 51% value share in the Indian smartphone market, hitting its highest-ever mark.

India Smartphone Market Volume Share, Q1 2024

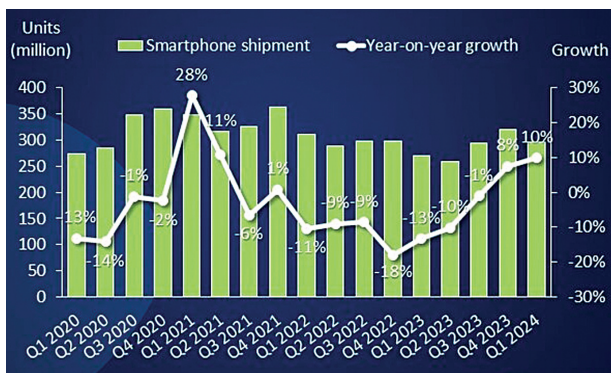

India Smartphone Market Value Share, Q1 2024

(Source: Counterpoint Research)

Global Smartphone Market Sees Double Digit Growth After 10 Quarters

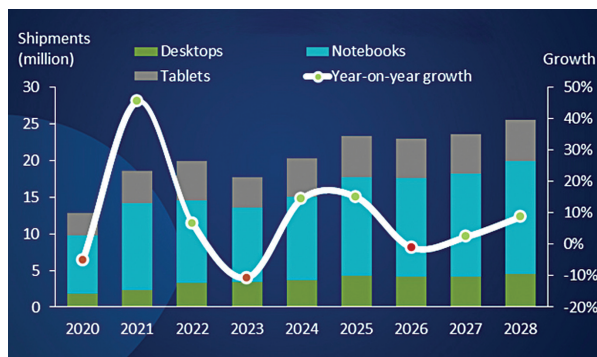

The global smartphone market saw a significant 10% YoY growth in Q1 2024, reaching 296.2 million units, driven by refreshed portfolios from vendors and stabilisation in emerging market economies. Samsung led the shipments with 60 million units driven by its A-series and the S-24 launch that reflects a broader industry shift towards AI-driven innovation.

(Source: <https://canalys.com>)

India's PC Market to Rebound in 2024, 2025

The Indian PC market is expected to see a 14% YoY increase, followed by further YoY growth of 15% in 2025 driven by solid commercial procurement with AI and locally manufactured PCs leading the way in 2024. With nearly 27 manufacturing firms approved under the PLI 2.0 scheme, there's anticipation of a substantial increase in devices manufactured in India.

(Source: <https://canalys.com>)