

Of course, I believe in reincarnation. I was iron ore in my previous life!

You said good things happen to us if we do good. Look where we are after doing all that good work!

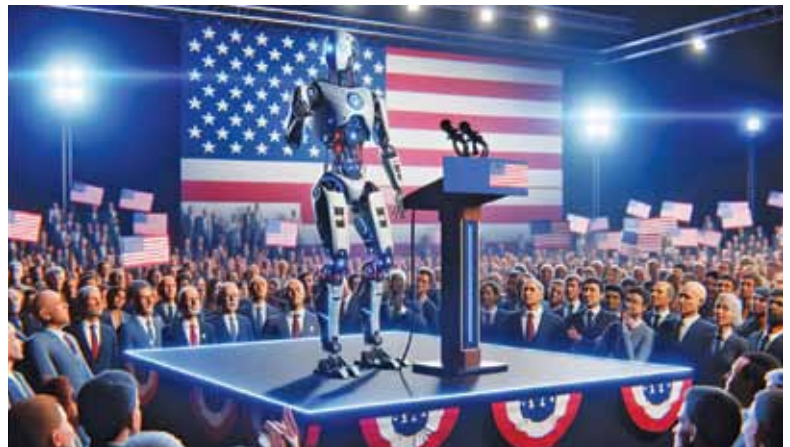

Please move. I am not here to entertain you. I am a robot appointed to control the traffic!

Sorry sir! I was not a bad robot before. I acquired these skills from people!

Ok, now show to everyone how the machine learning works!

You have tried it all. Now, it is time for a robot President!
