

“MILES TO GO Before I Sleep”

A teacher illuminates the path to success through the light of knowledge, yet some teachers extend that light to society through their contributions and research.

Known as the architect of the modern M3 electronic voting machine (EVM) and the voter verifiable paper audit trail (VVPAT) that transformed India's democratic process,

Prof. (Dr) Rajat Moona's journey began in the modest town of Bareilly. Here is his story, as recounted to and written by EFY's Yashasvini Razdan.
