JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

This is a very affordable waveform generator; you just need to be richer!

I am beginning to doubt if this is the right method to jump-start the car.

People are becoming more tech-savvy, Sir. How about we put this to mark it as one-way?

Did you say you worked all night attaching those four wheels to make the server run?

I have been here since morning. By the time I reach the checkout counter, there's already a newer model!

Good thing we support both dark and light modes, but I see many bugs in the light mode!
