

Doctor, I do not know how humans are surviving. Even I am getting sick due to the pollution!

Son, I'm just a driver who works for a company that makes LEDs. The LED driver is totally different!

It is so difficult to get money for human literacy. Now how do we fund computer literacy?

Clouds are way above! That is why storing data in the cloud is more secure!

I asked you to add a shift register, but you just shifted some resistors!

The satellite receiver is not a waste of money, Dad. Imagine how much we'll make once we start receiving those satellites!
