or even a 0.44 magnum calibre bullet. The interior is sophisticatedly designed to hold almost anything ranging from papers to laptops—even cigars! How, you wonder? The briefcase comes with elastic holders on cased beds to hold the cigars, and to keep them in good state without affecting the other items in your bag, it comes with a removable BOVEDA humidifier.

There are some more unique briefcases out there that might be a good pick for your trip. For instance, Andres Hagardzon's recently revealed a smart briefcase that is made of industrial-grade titanium and comes with a digital lock that can be opened with an electronic key or an electronic code. You can explore more such briefcases on the Internet to pick one before your flight! EFY
