other apps. It is free to download and use. Purchase a Pro subscription in the app to unlock features such as sub-tasks, unlimited sharing, advanced sorting badges and widgets-sync with Microsoft Outlook, and unlimited storage.

Any.do

Any.do provides a notepad, inbox, checklist, sticky notes, project-management tool, daily planner, reminders and a family organiser.

Any.do

This is combined with a simple and powerful calendar outlook. You can add to-do lists based on day, week or month and easily view your events. Files sync in real time with phone, Google Calendar, Outlook Calendar or Facebook events so that you never forget an important event. It can add recurring reminders, location reminders, notes, sub-tasks and file attachments. Best of all, it is free for basic use.

Take a look at the above apps, compare their features and install whichever fits your need best. So, start getting things done and enjoy peace of mind along the way! EFY
