

Industry	Initiatives	Alignment with national mission
DHI, Govt of India	- The FAME, a scheme formulated by India's Department of Heavy Industry, led to a continuous increase in registered original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) and vehicle models. The scheme has enhanced the sales of electric vehicles and ~ 261,500 electric/hybrid vehicles were supported under the scheme up to December 6, 2018. - To give a fresh thrust to e-mobility in public transport, Department of Heavy Industry announced the launch of public and shared mobility based on electric power-train.	Make in India, Skill India and Digital India
National Automotive Testing and R&D Infrastructure Project (NATRIIP)	Under the umbrella of NATRIIP, various facilities including passive safety labs comprising crash core facility and crash instrumentations facilities were established at ICAT, Manesar; ARAI, Pune; GARC, Chennai; NATRAX, Indore; NCVRS, Rae Bareilly; NIAIMT, Silchar; and DRDO-VRDE, Ahmednagar.	Make in India
Auto-Hub in Pithampur, Dhar (Madhya Pradesh)	- The efficient and enabling industrial policies of the state of MP have been instrumental in creating the auto-hub in Pithampur, which is located at a distance of thirty kilometres from the city of Indore. - Pithampur is spread across an area of nearly 2000 hectares and boasts of an annual automotive production of US$ 500 million. The cluster houses 122 medium and large-scale industrial units, more than 455 small-scale industries and auto giants such as Larsen & Toubro, Eicher, Volvo, Mahindra and Hindustan Motors, and has attracted cumulative investment of over US$ 1 billion and today provides employment to approximately 24,900 people. - A state-of-the-art automotive testing track has been set up in the region with digital testing superstructure capable of sensing fine nuances of an automobile even while it moves at 375 kilometres per hour.	Make in India
Sanand Industrial Estate, Gujarat	- Sanand Industrial Hub is connected to Ahmedabad International Airport; Kandla, JNPT and Pipavav port; Ahmedabad railway station; Ahmedabad bus-stand; NH-17 which is a part of Golden Quadrilateral; and multi-million-dollar Delhi-Mumbai industrial corridor. Connectivity to Kandla makes it a major export hub. - The 5000-acre Sanand Industrial Estate has attracted world renowned automobile majors such as AMW Motors, Maruti-Suzuki, Ford, Honda and Hero Motocorp. - Sanand-Hansalpur-Vithalpur belt has an installed capacity of 1.5 million vehicles and three million two wheelers. - Tata Motors' Sanand plant alone is estimated to produce 10,000 to 12,000 vehicles per month soon. - Ford India's assembly and engine plant (worth US$ 1 billion) has an installed capacity of 440,000 vehicles and 610,000 engines.	Make in India
Chennai Auto-Hub, Tamil Nadu	- Tamil Nadu is one of the top ten automobile hubs in the world with Chennai having an installed capacity to produce 1.4 million cars per year. - Innovative business models, ease of doing business and strong policy support have all contributed to the rise of Chennai as the automobile hub in the region. - The region has always welcomed major auto-players with its superior infrastructure facilities. Three modern and well-equipped ports in Chennai and one in Tuticorin provide an easy gateway for exports and imports. - Chennai's strong labour force is considered to be a significant contributor to its success as an auto cluster/hub in India.	Make in India
Automotive Components Manufacturers Association of India (ACMA)	- The auto-industry contributed ~7.5% to India's GDP and 49 per cent of the nation's manufacturing GDP. - The automotive manufacturing clusters are dependent on the availability of raw material, skilled labour and other support infrastructure. The role of industrial participation is immense in various part of the country. - Automobile industry in India is expected to reach a market size of US$ 300 billion by 2026.	Skill India and Make in India
Bajaj Auto	- Introduction of quadricycle (India's smallest car) of Bajaj Auto, called anti-car, has been approval by Ministry of Road Transport and Highways. - The vehicle has a light 216cc engine and weighs less than 400 kilogram, and is likely to be priced below ₹ 150,000	Make in India
Isuzu	- Isuzu Motors has signed MoU with government of Andhra Pradesh on March 15, 2013 to set up manufacturing facility in Sri City, Chittoor District. - Isuzu Motors India inaugurated its state-of-the-art manufacturing plant at Sri City, Andhra Pradesh, located 55 kilometres north of Chennai on April 27, 2016. - The manufacturing plant will have a production capacity of 50,000 units per year, which can be scaled up in future. - The new facility will follow the globally acclaimed ISUZU Manufacturing Management (IMM) principles and set a standard in Indian manufacturing operations.	Make in India
Kia Motors	- It established the manufacturing facility in India to help strengthen the company's position as the fifth largest global automotive market. - Kia has committed investments to the tune of US$ 1.1 billion to develop operations in India and expected annual production capacity is 300,000 units.	Make in India