

it more user-friendly. Display screen size is around 5cm (2 inches) for most cameras. Features like optical zoom and digital zoom produce better-quality images.

Accessories. The kit of accessories may come along with the camera or you may need to buy it separately. Basic accessories are batteries, battery chargers, mounts, USB cables and reference guides. Battery capacity (in mAh) decides how long a device can continuously work on it. Only rechargeable batteries require a battery charger. Other accessories that may be bought include items like a waterproof case, remote control and helmet mount. The best thing is that one kit is compatible with most of the cameras usually, sometimes even GoPro.
