

42 Thousand Servers.
21 Megawatts of Power.
Zero Margin of Error.

When you're managing a data center that draws more power than a small city, you can't afford a meltdown. At Positronic, we build high reliability, power-efficient connectors. But our true call is to provide certainty. Rock solid, mission-critical performance upon which you can bank life and limb, family and fortune. We consider it an honor. We consider it an inviolable trust.
