

Celebrating One Year of a New Paradigm I-STEM

Linking Researchers and Resources

A Government of India Initiative

Indian Science Technology and Engineering facilities Map (I-STEM)

I-STEM in the service of Atmanirbhar Bharat

A National Web Portal I-STEM for Linking Researches & Resources

An initiative under the Prime Minister's Science, Technology & Innovation
Advisory Council (PM-STIAC)

Launched by the Honourable Prime Minister of India
Shri Narendra Modi on January 03, 2020

Chosen by the Govt. of India as one of the Transformative Ideas

R&D Facilities Map

- Hosting an up-to-date national database of R&D facilities
- Making web-based access transparent and user-friendly
- Access across stake holders including academia, industries and Start-ups
- Ensuring more efficient use of public investment in R&D
- Enable innovation and indigenous technology development

Android
and iOS apps

A Successful Year

- 850 institutions/ laboratories enrolled
- 20,000+ equipment/ facilities listed
- More than 9.5 lakh visitors to the Portal
- Dedicated Dashboard for Funding Agencies, Institutions/Organisations and Users

Digital Catalogue

(An initiative under Empowered Technology Group)

Digital Catalogue of 700 Indigenous Technologies and Technology Products available on the Portal.

Science and Technology Clusters

(City Knowledge and Innovation Clusters)

S&T Cluster brings together the power of industry, academia, research labs and government to seamlessly collaborate to create and convert new knowledge to innovative products for public service delivery and economic growth.

Framework of S&T Clusters

Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Shrivastava
National Coordinator, I-STEM
E-mail: sanjeevs@iisc.ac.in/ istem.india@gmail.com

Scan QR Code

@Istem_IISc
@I-stem iisc

www.istem.gov.in

Toll Free: 1800-425-3281
IVR: 9620203281