

for connection between the OPS and radar surveillance vehicle shelters. The line replaceable unit is a part of the defence PSU's second positive indigenisation effort.

ABC's green hydrogen facility to come up in Karnataka

ABC Cleantech has signed an MoU with the government of Karnataka as a part of 'INVEST Karnataka 2022' initiative, where it will set up a green hydrogen production unit of 0.2 million tons/annum and 1 million tons/annum of green ammonia integrated with 5GW of renewable energy projects. For this purpose, a sum of ₹500 billion has been earmarked by the company. This manufacturing facility is likely to generate over 5000 employment opportunities over the next ten years. Karnataka Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai was present during the event.

Salora introduces Swedish audio brand Defunc in India

The Stockholm based global audio company Defunc recently introduced a range of products, including smart

Defunc senior executives showing their speakers

Wi-Fi home speaker solutions and truly wireless stereo earbuds and earpods, thus entering the Indian audio products market. It has collaborated with Delhi based leading consumer electronics company Salora International for its sales and marketing distribution in the country. The products will also be found across all major online channels soon.

Altigreen opening EV dealerships across India

Bengaluru based Altigreen recently inaugurated its retail experience centre in the capital city of Gujarat. Within the last two months, the company has opened a total of seven retail dealerships in different parts of India, including Mumbai, Delhi, Bengaluru, and Hyderabad. Altigreen partnered with Garnet Motors (Green) Pvt Ltd for its latest retail experience centre, which is located in Sarkhej, Ahmedabad. As per the company, the experience centre will allow EV enthusiasts to access Altigreen's range of electric cargo vehicles.

Uno Minda setting up a new lighting plant

The board of Uno Minda, a Haryana based conglomerate engaged in manufacture, development, and sale of diverse auto components, has approved the setting up of a new 4W lighting plant with a total capital expenditure of ₹4 billion. The amount will be spent over the next five years in a phased manner. The plant is intended to be commissioned by Q4 FY24, and the outlay in Phase 1 will be ₹2.3 billion over the next two years.

Lithium-ion battery recycling factory being set up by Attero

Noida based Attero Recycling has announced its plan to set up an integrated lithium-ion battery recycling factory in Telangana with an investment of ₹6 billion. Spread over 50 acres, this new unit would increase the company's lithium-ion battery recycling capacity to 19,500MT by the end of 2023 from its current capacity of 4500MT. This will be the company's second lithium-ion battery recycling facility in the country. The company also has plans to recycle 300,000 tonnes of lithium-ion batteries by 2027 with the global recycling industry projected to reach $22.8 billion by 2030, up from $4.6 billion currently, expanding at a CAGR of 19.6%.

Tata Power to set up 150MW solar project in Maharashtra

The Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Corporation Limited (MSEDCL) has sent the Letter of Award to Tata Power Renewable Energy Limited. The Award was won through an e-Reverse auction after the tariff based competitive bidding to set up a 150MW solar project in Solapur, Maharashtra. This solar project will be commissioned within 18 months from the PPA execution date.

Automovill raises fund to expand automotive servicing

Automovill, a full-stack mobility solution provider that caters to both B2B and B2C customers in automotive after-sales ecosystem, has raised ₹21.5 million in a Pre-Series A round led by Inflection Point Ventures. The funds are to be primarily used to expand the current scope of capital expenditure. The funds will help strategically channel and smoothen operations and broaden their marketing scope. Automobile servicing in India is expected to reach ₹731 billion by 2025.

GEF Capital takes minority stake in Ratan Tata's Electra EV

GEF Capital provides powertrain solutions for electric vehicles and, under its South Asia Growth Fund II, has acquired a minority stake in Electra EV, a startup owned by Ratan Tata. An amount of $25 million has been raised from GEF capital, which is to be used in expanding the product offerings of Electra EV. The startup also plans to further enhance its design, testing, and prototyping, and expand production capabilities to meet the rising demand for three-wheelers, four-wheelers, agriculture, and other allied segments.

Special Campaign by CERT-In focuses on cyber security and safety

The month of October was celebrated as Cyber Security month by Computer Emergency Response Team (CERT-In) along with ISEA from 2nd to 31st October, 2022. This drive not only focused on the cleanliness of the physical but also the cyber world, enhancing cyber security, cyber safety, and cyber hygiene. The regular presence on major social media platforms like Twitter enhanced awareness of Cyber Swachhata in the country.