

CORPORATE news

Elin files for an IPO of 7.6 billion rupees

Ghaziabad based EMS company Elin Electronics Limited has filed preliminary papers with SEBI to raise 7.6 billion rupees through an initial public offering (IPO). The company's IPO would comprise equity shares of face value of ₹5 each, comprising a fresh issue aggregating up to 1.75 billion rupees and an offer for sale of up to 5.85 billion rupees.

Simple Energy to set up E2W manufacturing plants in Tamil Nadu

In one of the highest investment commitments made in the Indian EV industry till date, Bengaluru's Simple Energy will be spending 25 billion rupees over the next five years in setting up an electric two-wheeler (E2W) manufacturing facility in Tamil Nadu. The company signed an MoU with the Tamil Nadu government for constructing the largest E2W plant in Dharmapuri with the investment.

Dixon to manufacture Acer laptops in India

Dixon Technologies has joined hands with Taiwanese PC major Acer to make the latter's laptops in India. Dixon's facility in Noida would be able to manufacture up to 500,000 Acer laptops annually. Acer plans to get the laptops manufactured under their value segment category, mainstream segment, and education segment at the Dixon factory.

Central Electronics being acquired by Nandal Finance

The government has approved a bid by Nandal Finance and Leasing Pvt Ltd to acquire state-owned Central Electronics Ltd for 2.1 billion rupees. In an official statement, the government said the decision was taken by a committee comprising Union ministers Nitin Gadkari, Nirmala Sitharaman, and Jitendra Singh.

Magenta to build EV charging infrastructure in Tamil Nadu

EV charge point operator Magenta has signed a pact with the Tamil Nadu government to invest 2.5 billion rupees in the state for setting up charging infrastructure for electric vehicles. Magenta said it will create around 500 jobs in the next two years in Tamil Nadu and train over 1,600 employees in EV charger manufacturing, assembly, installation, and operation over the next five years.

Renesas sets up SST in India to strengthen local business

Renesas Electronics has appointed Susanta Sengupta as the president of Renesas India to strengthen its local operations. Renesas will also establish a local SST to develop unique system solutions tailored for the Indian market that best fit the needs of customers across India. Renesas' office in India will soon be relocated to a larger campus in Bengaluru.

Ather Energy commissions second manufacturing unit in Hosur

Ather Energy has commissioned its second manufacturing facility in Hosur to meet the growing demand for its electric scooters. Ather has outlined an investment of 6.5 billion rupees in the next five years to enhance operational efficiency and production capacity. The second plant will be ready in 2022, as the company plans to manufacture 400,000 units of its scooters per annum.

MG Motor India to introduce an EV priced within ₹1.5 million

MG Motor India will drive-in an electric vehicle priced between 1 and 1.5 million rupees by the end of the next fiscal to rev up its play in the country's electric mobility space. The company said it will launch an electric crossover vehicle based on a global platform but customised for the Indian market as its next new product.

Luminous Power likely to partner with Gridtential for batteries

Luminous Power Technologies has entered into a formal evaluation agreement with Gridtential Energy under which Luminous will evaluate a combination of 6V and 12V Silicon Joule reference batteries and, using Gridtential's development kits, build prototype batteries in preparation for future production.

track of them. Any drone beyond the ones registered would not be part of the government's system and cannot be used as openly as the registered ones.

Government promoting EVs and charging stations big way

The FAME-II scheme has supported around 165,000 electric vehicles (EVs) as of November 25, 2021, the Parliament was informed. The government has also sanctioned 2,877 EV charging stations in 68 cities across 25 states and Union territories, which would cost around 5 billion rupees, and 1,576 charging stations across nine expressways and 16 highways, which would cost 1.08 billion rupees, under the scheme.

EV fast charging infrastructure standard expected in 2022

With an aim to speed up the adoption of electric mobility in the country, the Automotive Research Foundation of India (ARAI) is looking to standardize the charging infrastructure of electric vehicles by the end of 2022, informed Mahendra Nath Pandey, Minister for Heavy Industries. He invited the industry stakeholders and policymakers from the key states to push electric vehicle adoption in the fast lane.

Odisha government to promote electronics industry in state

Odisha State Cabinet has approved the Odisha Electronics Policy 2021 to stimulate the ESDM (electronics system design and manufacture) industry in the state. Among the various incentives under the policy, new investment and expansion can avail a production linked incentive (PLI) at 1% of annual turnover for five years, starting from the year of commencement of production, for the first ten investments. A subsidy ranging from 100 million to 2.5 billion rupees will also be provided to ESDM units, based on their fixed capital investment.