

Fig. 12: Code for detecting eye blink signal

However, if you do not have an AIY bonnet, you can make relevant changes in the code and use any of the PWM pins on the Raspberry Pi to power and control the servo motors using an external power supply ranging from 5V to 6V.

Fig. 14: Code output in Python

Fig. 16: Schematics and connections

To test, connect the MindWave EEG sensor to the Raspberry Pi Bluetooth and then run the code. Now concentrate and think about moving a finger. Ensure to blink the eye as per your chosen finger order and close the eye for 5 to 10 seconds before concentrating on the next finger movement. EFY

ELECTRONICS FOR YOU | JANUARY 2022 51