

LIFE IS NOT A SPRINT, It IS A MARATHON

He is followed by everyone in the electronics industry. He plays outstanding cricket and implements the learnings from the game into his leadership style. He headed Samsung's R&D for TVs in India at the age of 29. His first job offer was a sum of consistency and perseverance that he showcased. He interviews India's top political as well as non-political leaders. He writes about lessons from his life. He is currently leading Panasonic's India and South Asia team from the front foot. This is Manish Sharma's story as told to EFY's Mukul Yudhveer Singh

MANISH SHARMA

CHAIRMAN & CEO, PANASONIC INDIA AND SOUTH ASIA

Born in Birla Nagar (Gwalior), Madhya Pradesh, Manish Sharma refers to himself as someone who has been blessed with good people throughout. In fact, he has an amicable nature and the knack of developing relationships. He does not shy away from admitting that he learnt the importance of developing good relations at a very early