

THE DASHBOARD

India's Smart Personal Audio Market Grows Amidst Global Decline in Q22

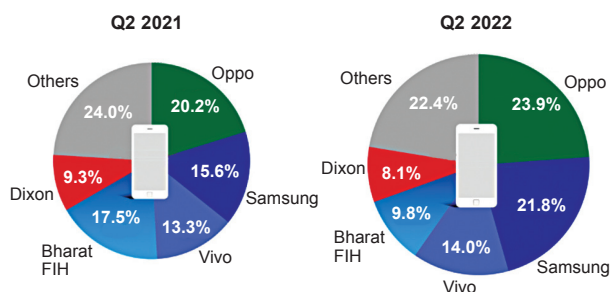

Global smart personal audio shipments fell by 1.7% YoY in Q222. In spite of the 98.1 million units drop, India showed a hike. As shipments grew up to 55% in India, US and China came down by 1% and 13% respectively. Apple continues to lead the global TWS market, in spite of the slow 2% growth of the AirPods TWS series. On the other hand, the response to TWS in India saw 7 million units shipped, marking a record.

(Source: <https://canalys.com>)

16% YoY Growth for 'Made in India' Smartphones

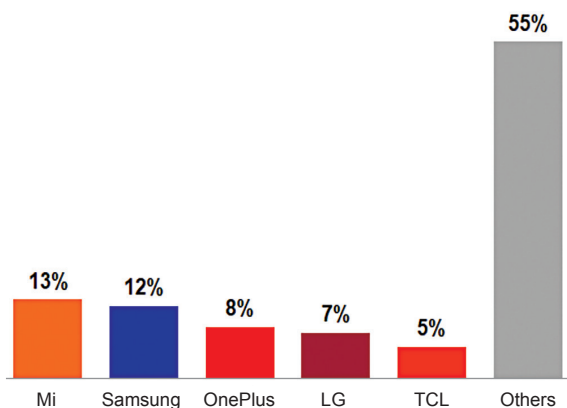

2022 saw the smartphone shipments rise to a 16% YoY growth. The latest research on 'Made in India' products revealed interesting data points. With this impressive growth, the smartphone shipment stood at 44 million units in this quarter. It is noteworthy that the local manufacturing push is positively impacting the adjoining sectors like IoT. In the wearable segment, TWS contributed a big 16% and stood first in domestic manufacturing. Neckbands and smartwatches closely followed with 8.4% and 6.2% contributions respectively.

(Source: Counterpoint Research)

74% YoY Increase in Q22 for India's Smart TV Shipments

As per reports, the sub-₹20,000 (US$250) range attributed to the major portion of India's smart TV market. The total contribution of smart TVs accounted for 90% of the total TV market. Xiaomi continued to lead with a 13% market share, while Samsung and OnePlus had a 12% and 8% share respectively in the market in Q2 2022. TCL smart TV shipments doubled in the quarter even though LG took fourth place with a 7.5% share. Sales from major online retailer platforms contributed to 31% of the total.

(Source: Counterpoint Research)

India Smartwatch Shipment Grows to 347% YoY

The global smartwatch market shipments for the first time have grown to more than 300% YoY overtaking China for the second spot. Indian OEMs such as Fire-Boltt and Noise took top spots in the global market share. Apple retained its top position in the market with shipments increasing 8% YoY, while Samsung and Huawei took the second and third spot respectively. Xiaomi's shipments increased 13% YoY and Garmin fell two places to the seventh spot compared to the previous year. Fire-Boltt on the other hand recorded a remarkable increase in shipments, taking first place in India's market in terms of quarterly shipments.

(Source: Counterpoint Research)