

3300MHz, the company has been a pioneer of 5G technology in India, testing several use cases for the past one year. It also set up India's first rural 5G trial in Hyderabad for cloud gaming experience. It has deployed the first and successful captive private network spectrum at BOSH facility.

Oppo India to invest US$60 million to support MSMEs

Oppo India has partnered with MSMEs and said it would invest US$60 million in the next five years. With a network of over 1000 distributors, this partnership is to support MSME local suppliers on the supply chain and to improve the MSMEs' professional skills and sales drive.

225MW hybrid power project by Tata Power

Tata Power Green Energy Limited has commissioned a 225MW hybrid power project at Noorsar, Rajasthan. The generated power from the 1200-acre project will be supplied to Tata Power, Mumbai Distribution under a power purchase agreement. With this project, customers of Tata Power, Mumbai have revised their power supply portfolio, resulting in 38% non-carbon power. The project has been delivered within the stipulated timeline. The total renewables capacity of Tata Power has now reached 5524MW.

Advent and DEPA sign MoU for hydrogen projects

An MoU has been signed between Advent and DEPA to form a strategic partnership on hydrogen projects with common interests. As per the MoU, collaboration on producing environmentally friendly hydrogen, co-developing a proprietary and highly differentiated CHP system for mass production, and creating an innovation hub while developing synergies for promoting hydrogen and related technologies are looked at.

BEL wins IPC award

The IPC India Award was conferred to Navratna Defence PSU Bharat Electronics Limited as a recognition of its long-term association with IPC for its training and certification needs. The government of India, members of IPC, Indian and international electronics associations are said to support the event with participation from over 500+ leading electronics companies attending the event.

Polymatech to expand its chipset facility

To expand its chipset manufacturing and packing facility in Tamil Nadu, Polymatech will be investing US$1 billion. Nandam Eswara

Rao, Founding President, Polymatech Electronics claimed that the facility will be capable of producing 250 million chips a year as they adopt Industry 4.0. The company has signed an MoU with the Tamil Nadu government and already made an investment of US$130 million for the expansion.

Syrma SGS Technologies IPO receives good response

The grey market premium for Syrma SGS Technologies' IPO has jumped from ₹36 per equity share to ₹59 per equity share. The first 4-day subscription of the public issue worth ₹8.4 billion got subscribed 32.61 times, whereas its retail portion was subscribed 5.53 times. These investments are expected to be used for funding capital expenditure requirements to expand manufacturing and R&D facilities, funding long-term working capital requirements besides the general corporate purposes.

NIOT introduces a saline-water LED lamp

A team of scientists at the National Institute of Ocean Technology (NIOT), Chennai has developed Roshni, a saline-water LED lamp.

It is considered a unique innovation in the maritime ecosystem as it powers itself using sea water. A successful demonstration was done by the three LTTD technology based desalination plants in Lakshadweep islands.

TechnoBind and Sumo deliver real-time analytics-as-a-service

The partnership of TechnoBind and Sumo Logic for an SaaS analytics platform would enable their customers to deliver reliable and secure cloud-native applications. While the former collects and analyses data, the latter assists professionals and developers in gaining insights into cloud infrastructures.

First drone pilot training school set up in Guwahati

In the pursuit of making India a drone tech hub, Northeast India has got its first remote pilot training school. Set up at the Tech City in Guwahati, the school's flying ground is at the Assam Forest School in Jalukbari. Assam Electronics Development Corporation Limited (AMTRON) obtained two micro category (< 2kg) and two small category (2-25kg) indigenous drones for the training purpose.

World Economic Forum drones to deliver medicines in Arunachal

The World Economic Forum has initiated a pilot project called 'Medicine from the Sky' in Arunachal Pradesh. It is a six-month-long programme that would use drones to deliver medicines in the north-eastern state. This flagship initiative aims to document the response of health systems in remote parts of the state when integrated with drone based supply chains.

Government's Defence purchases from MSMEs hit record high

Defence procurement from MSMEs hit a record high in the financial year 2021-22, as per the government data. The purchase of goods and services from MSMEs during the year increased by 33.8% to ₹57.6 billion in FY21. The value of Indian defence exports during FY22 reached ₹128.15 billion.

ESSCI and LG Electronics setting up a Centre of Excellence

A 'Centre of Excellence' for the electronics industry is being set up at the National Small Industries Corporation (NSIC), Okhla in New Delhi. It aims to impart skills in different job roles to underprivileged youth in the consumer electronics and appliances field. An institutionalised platform for industry-academia interactions and leveraging the expertise available with industry